ONE SALE RECORDED
ON STOCK EXCHANGESeveral Brokers on Floor Bid for Large Blocks of Georgetown
Gas Bonds.

Though there was apparently a greater number of orders on the floor than had recently been the case, and price levels in a number of instances remained only one sale was recorded at today's session of the Washington Stock Exchange, the bid prices failing to bring forth offerings of bonds.

Georgetown Gas' were in demand, several brokers bidding for large blocks of the bonds. The bid price was raised a point to 100, and the asked figure was 100 1/2. The bid was advanced to 100 1/2, while that on Washington Railway & Electric was a quarter point to 96 1/2, at which price the only sale of the day, $1,000 bond, was made.

The application of Charles C. Glover Jr., for membership on the exchange was rejected today. In compliance with the constitution of the exchange, the formal election cannot take place until the stockholders' meeting of an application. Mr. Glover has purchased the seat of his father, Charles C. Glover, sr., president of the Riggs National Bank, who succeeded him upon the floor of the exchange. The candidate's sponsor were William J. Fether and Henry Hunt.
